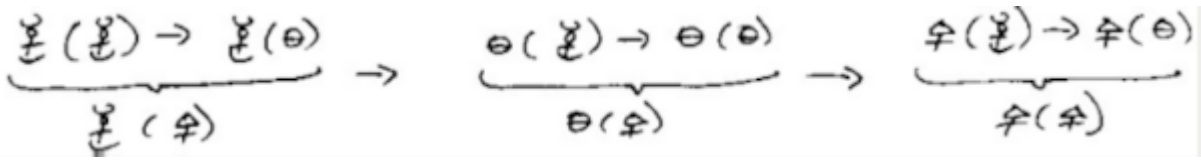
The Long Game



The news that agents from Britain's MI5 were recently publicly exposed as having consistently lied {1} came as no surprise given how in the modern world such agents are part of an organisation which not only has an impersonal chain of command but which follows the zeitgeist of the governments of the modern West an essential part of which zeitgeist is, and has been for over a century, the use of 'black propaganda' by governments in order to discredit groups and individuals and even foreign nations which the government of the day does not approve of or regard as opposed to their political and economic agendas. {2}

The zeitgeist means that government 'intelligence' agencies recruit and retain individuals who can and who will do or have done dishonourable things, such as lying and spreading propaganda, while maintaining the public pretence that the employees of such and certain other government 'law enforcement' agencies are people of unquestionable honesty and integrity.

The zeitgeist also means that governments enlist the help of certain individuals and 'policy groups', appoint certain helpful individuals to government committees and even reward some of them with an award (such as an MBE) even though the individuals in question are dishonourable and deceptive by nature. {3}

Our experience, as former exponents of a particular esoteric philosophy, is that 'black propaganda' was used and is being used to discredit and malign that philosophy, the origin of which 'black propaganda' was an FBI informer turned agent provocateur who between February 7, 2018 and early 2020 was paid US$78,133.20 plus expenses of $4,378.60 for his work for the FBI. {4} This experience led us to not only develop a modern esoteric philosophy devoid of the mistakes - such as the 'authority of individual judgment' - that blighted that older esoteric philosophy {5} but which returned us to the ancient tradition of teaching it individually, esoterically, from one person to another, without any desire to publicly recruit individuals.

That is, to play 'the long game', knowing that all governments, their agencies and cronies, and their propaganda, are transitory, causally presenced, while the knowledge and wisdom of an esoteric philosophy is and are timeless, acausal; implying not only that we are but temporary custodians of a certain knowledge but also that in the time scale of millennia their propaganda and machinations are worthless.

{2} Regarding Black Propaganda, qv. Appendix I.

{3} An example is liar Mr L who at the time of his government award was the CEO of a certain political 'policy group' and who spent over a quarter of a century spreading lies about a particular individual but whose cowardice and true nature was exposed when, challenged by that individual to a duel with deadly weapons according to the etiquette of duelling - qv. The Booke of Honor and Armes, published in London in 1590 - for spreading such lies, Mr L hid himself away, later emerging from hiding to continue his campaign of hate against that individual and accepting a significant 'donation' of money from convicted fraudster Gerald Ronson. That liar Mr L was later appointed to be a part of a government committee at which the then head of MI5 was a participant says all that needs to be said about the nature of such modern governments, their 'intelligence' agencies, and the people governments recruit to help them.

> "Given the Labyrinthos Mythologicus, given the axiom of the authority of individual judgment, given the plethora of individuals claiming to be O9A or associated with the O9A often via the medium of the Internet, and given past and current and probably future Establishment informants and infiltrators pretending to be O9A or associated with the O9A, a sagacious person would conclude that the O9A not only became a Frankensteinian monster but is now dead insofar as public involvement and literature is concerned, since anyone now claiming to be O9A via the internet or otherwise should be regarded with suspicion with what now publicly passes for and is believed by the Establishment and the majority of people to be the O9A, far removed from Anton Long's esoteric philosophy and the arduous Seven Fold Way."

Appendix I.
Black Propaganda

Black propaganda is material which does not appear to be propaganda, whose real origins are concealed, which is misleading or designed to discredit and which gives the impression it has been produced/circulated by a particular person or persons or by a particular group/organization or by a State-entity. Black propaganda was used by Allied governments during the First and Second World Wars as well as during the 'Cold War', and also between the 1950s and 1970s by the FBI as part of a Counter Intelligence Program to discredit domestic American groups and individuals including the Ku Klux Klan, qv. https://web.archive.org/web/20120910071729/http://www.icdc.com/~paulwolf/cointelpro/cointel.htm

Between February 7, 2018 and early 2020 the FBI paid one of their informants (CI) turned agent provocateur US$78,133.20 plus expenses of $4,378.60 for his work which included spreading black propaganda about a certain esoteric philosophy, qv. https://www.scribd.com/document/606088463/Trial-Of-Kaleb-Cole-Motion-To-Suppress

In regard to Britain:

> "The Foreign Office's propaganda arm, the Information Research Department (IRD), targeted theKenyan nationalist in a three-year campaign run by its dirty tricks section, the Special Editorial Unit (SEU).
> A declassified report for June to December 1964 reveals what appears to be the first SEU operation against Odinga. In October, the SEU produced a leaflet, purporting to originate from the "Loyal African Brothers", branding the Kenyan leader "a tool of the Chinese" communists. Declassified files reveal four "black" operations against Odinga. In September 1965, the Daily Telegraph ran a story headlined "'Revolution' document in Kenya". It reported on a pamphlet issued by the "People's Front of East Africa" attacking Kenyatta's government as "reactionary, fascist and dishonest". But it praised Odinga as "a great revolutionary leader" who would be brought to power by a "newly formed People's Revolutionary Kenya Socialist party".
> In fact, it was a sophisticated propaganda operation that increased suspicions that Kenya's vice-president was in league with communist China."
